

MEDIA RELEASE

CONTACT: A.P. Fuchs
Phone: 204-669-9322
E-mail: coscomentertainment@gmail.com
Web: www.coscomentertainment.com

For Immediate Release

Aussie Creator Serves Up Sequel to Acclaimed Underground Superhero Novel

Sydney, Australia—Valley of Evil, sequel to last summer's The Wraith by Frank Dirscherl, exceeds its predecessor.

Last summer saw the release of The Wraith by Frank Dirscherl, a book adaptation of the creator's comic book of the same name. Shortly following that was The Wraith: Eyes of Judgment, The Official Script Book and Movie Guide, which was released on the same day as the film.

Dirscherl is back with another Wraith adventure, one that outshines its predecessor. In this next installment in The Wraith saga, Paul Sanderson (aka The Wraith) is recuperating after the Cobra's vicious onslaught against Metro City. Into this relative calm marches Ma Tzi, the Hong Kong drug lord, who senses a weakness in resident crime lord Robert Latham's hold on the city, and intends to exploit that, in any way necessary. And at any cost.

Quickly, a terrible plague is unleashed upon the city and The Wraith is called forth once more. With no end in sight, and his assistant Max Horton missing, can The Wraith stop Latham and Tzi from executing further carnage, save countless lives and find those responsible for the heinous slaughter of untold innocents?

Since the original novel's release, Dirscherl's The Wraith has garnered the Aussie creator much acclaim in the underground comics scene, a toy deal and plans for six more comic books, setting the stage for The Wraith to be everywhere in the near future.

For more on Valley of Evil and Frank Dirscherl, please visit www.the-wraith.com. For more on the publisher, Coscom Entertainment, please visit www.coscomentertainment.com

###